Allowable Subject Matter

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The present claims differentiate over the prior art in that the presently claimed invention records internet test of browser interaction in steps with measurements which include pauses and editing the transaction to redefine the pauses. Applicant discusses how the present claim differentiate over the prior art of record in remarks filed 3/27/06 starting on page 8 in which the applicant discusses specific method of recording steps, interaction with webpage, and specifically testing data as disclose on page 11 of the remarks. Other prior art does disclose scripts with recording and pauses but they art not in analogous art of Internet web browser testing with recording feature, for example Richardson et al. (Patent 5,809,247) discuss a internet guided tour which include web sites but does not disclose the testing data as is disclose in context in applicants remarks dated 3/27/06 page 11. Therefore for the above reason among other things the present claims are allowed.

Drawing submitted 6/19/2001 are to used.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
